injured. For several days the unusually larg freight business has required the running of many extra trains, both day and night, and during yesterday all the trains were ore or less delayed, in consequence of he two rear cars of a freight train being arown from the track near Little Wea ridge, on Thursday night, by the falling of a brake bar, resulting in a general tear ng up of the track on the bridge.

The operator at Corwin had a special rder to hold the passenger train coming South, and the accommodation North, at his office, for orders from the train dispatcher, until the extra freight bound bouth arrived. The order was repeated ack in the usual form. The passenger ain received her order and left, meeting e North bound accommodation at Lin en; but when the accommodation at Corin, the operator there forgot his order to old that train until they had left the staon. The result of his heedlessness and relessness is above stated.

The Day.

To-day Commissioners from a number States meet at Washington for the purpos of seeing if any adjustment of the difficul ies between the sections is possible. Thousands in all parts of the countr look to this conference full of hope and confident of favorable results. Indeed, it may be regarded as the last hope of even the most sanguine of the friends of the Union. No one hopes for any action from Congress that will restore the Union and give peace to the country. No one in the South hopes for anything from the Northern Legislatures. Many do hope for much from the Commissioners at Washington.

We shall rejoice if these hopes of the atriotic friends of the Constitution and the Union be realized. If we could see the chilling effects of a future disappoin ent, by assuring our readers of the fact. We see but little reason to hope for such results as all wish may flow from the Conference. Yet, while preparing for the vorst, we should hope for the best. The meeting of the Conference is an im ortant event; and the proceedings of that body of distinguished men will be looked or with much interest.

In Montgomery, Alabama, will be assemoled to-day, also, a body of men whose action will be most important. Deputies from the States of South Caro ina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Florida will meet in Convention, in the last named city, to-day at 10 o'clock, for the purpose of forming a Southern CONFEDERACY and establishing a Provisional Government for it. The Deputies appointed to this Conven tion embrace the ablest men and most pro-found statesmen in these Republics, equal in number to the Senators and Representa ives they were entitled to in the Congress of the United States.

Meeting with a fixed purpose, and great nanimity of sentiment, their action may be easily predicted.

They will form a Southern Confederacy onsisting of the States we have named u the basis of the old Federal Constitution; they will establish a Government for dent, Vice President, and other officers therefor; they will make provisions for a future and permanent Union to include all the States that may hereafter secede from the existing Confederacy: and when they adjourn, a Southern Confederacy will be a fixed fact, and its existence and independence will be speedily acknowledged by all the powers of the world.

Before Mr. LINCOLN is inaugurated, six f the States that were in the Union on the 6th of November will constitute a new Government, which will be recognized as such by the nations of the earth.

THEATER-COLLINS, THE IRISH COME-DIAN-FIRST NIGHT OF COLLEEN BAWN,-The long talked of and long expected drama of the Colleen Bawn will be preluced to-night at our theater. As we have efore stated, it is the most successful rama produced in modern times. The latest English papers announce its repro sentation for the one hundred and twentiet ime at the Adelphi, in London. During the present season the Colleen Bawn, with Mr. Collins as Myles, has been performed at the principal theaters in this country and never to less than a run of fourtee nights. Mr. Cleary said when he introduced the solutions then offered as a substitute by he geutleman from Mercer, he thought they would be effective in preserving peace; but he said he believed nothing less than Mr. HARRISON'S resolution would now prevent civil war. If the guns of fort Sumter, loaded to the muzzle, are siill to frown on Charleston, threatening to evel it with the ground, it would be stormed and taken regardless of the loss of life; and when blood is once shed, who n foresee the end? He had advocated the assage of the resolutions.

Relies of the old Romanage, of gold, silver, copper, and glass, which have been dug from the soil of "Old England," with all species of warlike armor, and weapons, are kept here. The building itself is worthy of notice. It covers about eight acres of ground, and is five stories high. It also contains the Library—a grand collection of old manuscripts, books, de. Here I saw the original "Magua Chartar" of King John, autograph letters of all the Kings and Queens, and among them, what caused a thrill of pleasure to dance through my "Yankee" breast, original letters of Washington and Franklin. I have visited "Old Westminster Abboy," where lie buried all England's defunct royalty; and also her great poets, painters, and warriors. Byron, their sweetest bard, is denied a resting place here, to the shame of the Government. I attended service in this fine old monument of past ages, and it was grand. The echo of the organ through the lofty stone arches seemed as if it would never die away, and the solemn responses from the hundred voices of the choir was the most impressive music I ever listened to. The total cost of the tunnel was $2,340,000, and six human lives destroyed by the breaking through of the river, during the progress of tunnelling. The first blow was struck upon the structure on June 24th, 1824, unaer the direction of Sir Isambart Brunel, the originator of the plan, and father of the Brunel who built the "Great Eastern." It was opened to the public March 25th, 1843.

Some are of iron, and some upon the suspension principle. Most of them are free-some charge a half-penny. The Thames awarms with little ompilus steamers, which stop at all the streets, and carry you anywhere in London for a penny. The weather here, so far as my experience and research goes, may, for the year, be set down, as nine mouths of rain, and three months very wet. I have not beheld the sun more than twice since my arrival here, and frequently dense fogs settle down overthe city. The street lamps are lighted the whole day, and the boys go about with awinging lamps, selves the vast importance of the impering issue. If the decision be in favor the negro, we cannot help seeing that at very critical moment a most weighty ar damaging censure will have been passe damaging censure will have been passed by the very highest authority on the laws and practices of the United States—a cen-sure not likely to be soon forgotten or for-given, since it must be founded on the as-sumption that their laws cannot be en-forced, because they are contrary to the very first principles of natural justice. If, on the other hand, the decision should be against the near we cannot record with against the negro, we cannot regard with-out apprehension the excitement of feelings in this country which may, for years to come, poison our relations with one half of come, poison our relations with one half of the United States. We, at least, are not accustomed to act as balliffs, or as gaolers for the slaveowners of the South, and it has been long since England has expe-rienced a day of such humiliation as she would feel, if, through the provisions of a treaty negotiated and entered into for other objects, she felt herself compelled, by the charge of a crime the existence of which she does not admit, to surrender a slave who has lived in freedom seven years unhe boys go about with swinging lamps alled "Links," and light you home for alled "Links," and light you home for a penny—and you often require their services at midday. During the shooting a man named Greggs was struck in the breast by a pistol fired by Mr. Flournoy, and instantly killed. THE AMERICAN BONAPARTES. An Important Suit, and an Interest-ing Memoir.

A most interesting case was to come beore the Tribunal of First Instance, at Paris, on the 25th inst. Madame Bona-parte (of Baltimore), first wife of the late Jerome Bonaparte, Ex King of Westphalia, and uncle of the Emperor Napoleon, and her son by her marriage with the Prince, claim to inherit their part of the personal property left by the Prince. Madame Bonaparte, who is now in Paris, was, it is well known, an American lady, named Patterson, and the real object of the present suit is to re-establish the perfect legality of her mar-riage. Her advocates in Paris have pubshed an interesting memoir of the career of Jerome Bonaparte, and his marriage to her, in Baltimore, in 1803. We have room nly for a portion of the memoir:

miles per hour, is rather hazardous. The cars, having but four wheels under them, are very unsteady, and such a thing as a stove in them is unknown. Sleeping cars are not required, as you can go the length of this country by day light. The fare is about double what it is in the United States, as is also the discomfort. Your baggage is carefully weighed, and for all over sixty pounds you pay enormously. They use no baggage checks, but paste a card of destination on each parcel. So much for railroad traveling in England.

London is a wonderful city, a world in itsef. I have expended all my spare time, for a month past, in looking at some of the wonders to be seen here, but it will take a year to see them all. "Compliments to Jerome, and believe in my sincere friendship. NAPOLEON."

On the 17th of April, 1855, M. Bonaparte being then at Baltimore, received from M. Fould, Minister of State, a letter announcing to him that on his return to France he was to assume the title of Duke de Sartene, (a town in Corsica,) "to put an end to difficulties which you are aware of," and also that it was the Emperor's intention that his son should bear the title of "Count de Sartene." The proposition was rejected.

at a good stage of water, but deep enough for the largest vessels. To reach the ex-tremities of this tunnel, you descend a staircase, which winds around a circular pit, about fitty feet in diameter and sixty de Sartene." The proposition was rejected.

Prince Napoleon and his sister, the Princess Mathilde, then demanded of the Emperor and the Couseil de Famille, that "MM. Patterson (Mr. Jerome Bonaparte and his son) should not exercise any of the rights which belonged exclusively to the legitimate issue, and that consequently M. Jerome Patterson and his descendants should be prohibited from bearing the name of Bonaparte." The Conseil de Famille decided in favor of their bearing the name of Bonaparte, but decided illegally, as the memoir maintains that they should not have the right to avail themselves of the Code Napoleon relating to succession. The Conseil de Famille was composed of MM. Abbartucci, Fould, Troplong, De Morny, Baroche, and Orrano. The point is argued at some length in he memoir.

On the 10th of November, 1855, Marshal cet deep. These walled pits are roofed with glass, and have neat paintings in panwith glass, and have neat paintings in pan-els, among which I noticed Niagara Falls. The tunnel itself is paved with freestone, white-washed and well lighted with gas, and forms a delightful pronemade. Toll, one penny. It is much used as a foot way. There is no carriage road, as many suppose. Figures are rather uninteresting to the general reader, yet for the benefit of your engineers, I will give you some in relation to this great work. It is 1200 feet in length, 38 feet wide, 22 feet 6 inches high. There are 63 arches of communication between the two tunnels, and 126 gas lights. It takes 109 steps to get down the stairs. It took 6,600,000 bricks to build the tunnel, These descents, in commencing the rork, were erected upon the surface of the earth in the form of towers, 50 feet in di-ameter, and 60 feet in hight, the walls of brick, 3 feet thick; upon the top of these was built a platform, with engines for rais-topol, named "M. Jerome Napoleon Bonaparte" lieutenant in the 7th dragoens, Knight of the Legion of Honor. This nomination was confirmed on the 24th of the same month. But on the 13th of June, 1856, a letter of permission to wear the decoration of the Medjidle of Turkey was addressed to M. Bonaparte, Jine, as "M. Bonaparte Patterson." This permission, granted to M. Bonaparte, in the proposition of the Duchy of Sartene, was renewed to M. Bonaparte, the father. Under these circumstances the latteraddressed the following letter to the Emperor, dated July 25, 1856:

"Sire: I received the enclosed from my son a few days ago. I kept it to reflect on its contents before I should send it to your Majesty. It hreathes the sentiments of honor in which my son was brought up, and I pray your Majesty to grant his request. It is no real dishonor to be born a bastard and in accepting the consequences.

fear it. And if the family council (conseil de familie) has rendered an illegal and unjust decision, it at least stopped short of depriving me of the name I bore from my birth to the fiftieth year of my age, without its ever having been contested.

"The object and victim of intrigues, calumnies and falsehoods, it only remains for me, Sire, to repeat the prayer I addressed to your Majesty in my letter of the 20th of March, to go with my son and wait in exile that justice, which I am convinced Heaven reserves for me, sooner or later, and to reques; that your Majesty will be pleased to grant me an audicace to your casers for the future."

The memorial concludes by praying the tribune to order that an inventory be taken of the property left by his imperial highness Prince Jerome, and that a partition be made of it. On this demand, which must be admitted in any case M. Bonaparte will he able to maintain the legitimacy of his fitiation, and to repel any exception ca the ground that the affair has been already decided, which might be pleased.

As for Mmc. Elizabeth Fatterson, who has taken no part in anything that has passed since the birth of her son, and against whom, to this day, no direct attack has ever been attempted, with whom it cannot be alleged that any decision, legal or not, has been pronounced, she will vindicate the honor of her materity, she will prove the validity of her marriage, and she will claim all the rights which accrue to her from the contract which preceded it. Now that there is an interest created and greated in the discussion, and for the trial of the questions which this great cause may orsent in the discussion, and for the trial of the questions which this great cause may give rise to, French magistrates holding the code of laws in their hands, and maintaining all the dignity of their independence, will not make the holy authority of marriage, and the sacred and legitimate rights of a family, catablished for more than half a century, give way to the ephemeral ne-

The Paris correspondent of the London Herald, writing on the 13th, gives the following account of the meaner in which Napoleon III sometimes diverts himself.

Le Emperor Napoleon arrived at the lake in the Bois de Boileague about three P. M. on Friday, in a plain chariot, drawn by two horses, and unattended by any escort. He alighted from his carriage and crossed the lake on his skates. He was soon recognized by some men wearing blouses, who raised the cry of "Here is the Emperor: Vive l'Empereur!" The cry attracted universal attention, and everybody ran and everybody cheered. The Emperor continued to skate, apparently delighted with the address themselves.

The interests of all classes of the people of the South are mutual. The rights of one class cannot be assailed without striking a blow at the rights of all classes. The property of one citizen cannot be destroyed, without injury to the property of every other citizen.

If slave property is stricken down to-day, what security have we that the cry of "lands for the landless" may not to-morre foreshadow the destruction of the title deeds of the farms of the Commonwealth If the property rights of the slaveholder are to be sacrificed to-day to appease the fanaticism of the North, what other right or privilege of citizenship will be secure

We are amazed at the policy of the lead ers in the anti-Convention movement in Kentucky, as foreshadowed in recent speeches at the capital of the State-a policy which, if successful, would sweep away at once and forever every right and every security of person and property which our Government was instituted to protect. That policy is to excite the non-slave holder against the slaveholder-to array one class of our people against another class—to stir up strite and contention among the citizens of the State-to ban isb, forever, in fact, peace from among us and inaugurate discord and trouble in our

That policy is to surrender one hundre millions of property to those who seek its destruction, or leave it only to be defended by those who have a direct and immediate

That policy looks to the establishmen of the principle, that if slave property be rdized from any cause, nonholders shall be subjected to expense or put to trouble or placed in danger to pro-tect it; that if the rights of laud owners be attacked, none but land owners shall be taxed or troubled to maintain them; that if it be attempted to limit the right of suffrage to those only who can read and write, none but those who cannot read and write shall be required, or will be expected, to oppose it, if it may lead to any unpleasant consequences: for the same principle applies in all cases.

It is not more unreasonable now to suppose, that in ten years a Northern majority will demand a further restriction of the right of suffrage in the Slave States, or at least in the common territories of the United States, than it was at the date of the formation of the Federal Government to suppose that the time would come when it would be sought to destroy the great and ntrolling interest of half the States of the Union. If one right may be denied, none can be safe. If one species of property may be left without protection, no other description of property is entitled to protection If one class of our citizens may be wronged with impunity, no other class is secure. The attempt to array the non slaveholder against the slaveholder, in order to accomplish a political end, should be characte ized as infamous; and that epithet is not thought the previous question should not have been called. We have reason to bestrong enough to express the full enormity of the offense. leve that in caucus some of them opposed The argument is, that all our trouble are brought upon us by the agitation of the subject of slavery; that disunion has been caused by slavery; that if civil war comes it will be the result of slavery; and that the non-slaveholder will not bear increased taxation, submit to privation, and incur personal danger it may be, for the protection and on account of property that does not belong to him! The assumption that slavery has brought our country to its present distracted condition is unwarranted and untrue.

Slavery has never brought trouble o the country; slavery has not devided the Union; slavery will not cause civil war.

The trouble comes, not from slavery, but from the attacks of fanatical men on the rights of the slaveholder.

Should the Legislature of Kentucky solemnly enact that no man who has no a freehold worth one thousand dollars shall be entitled to vote at any election in the Commonwealth, an attempt to carry the law into effect would produce conter tion, strife, and revolution. What would be thought of the man who would attri bute the difficulties thus originating to the right of suffrage, and not to the unwarrantable invasion of that right? He is just as far wrong who attributes our pending difficulties to the existence of slavery, and not to the unjustifiable and persistent and unconstitutional warfare of the North

A great crisis is upon us. Serious and threatening questions have to be met and decided at once. Troubles cannot be avoided, and greater calamities than we like to contemplate may yet await us. And party leaders-polilicans who are ready and willing to sacrifice the material interests of the Commonwealth, and the liberties of the people, for party ends-in such a crisis seek to array one portion of the people of Kentucky against another, not because that other portion have been guilty of any wrong, but because they own property against which Sewarpand Lincoln choose from the worst of motives to wage an irrepressible con.

When the public safety, the interests of all, and the rights of all require that the people of Kentucky should be united as e man, there are men in our midst who seek by artful appeals and insinuations and assumptions to divide us one against the other, to fan the flames of faction, and thus to enable the enemies of us all to de-stroy the rights and privileges of all through our own fends and divisions!

But these men, whose conduct canno be properly characterized by any language at our command, seek to avoid respons ility by asserting as a fact what they do not undertake to justify. They say not that non-slaveholders ought not to make common cause with slaveholders against an attack that threatens the property of one class and the liberties of all, but that they will not join in protecting the honor and maintaining the rights of their State

Who are they who thus undertake to speak for the non-slaveholders? Who are they who thus impugn the loyalty of a whole class of the people of this Commonwealth? Who are they who thus falsify history and basely calumniate their FAXXON. February 2, 1881.

Miscellaneous,

THE HEADACHE is the favorite sign by which nature makes known any deviation whatever from the natural state of the brain, and viewed in this light it may be looked on as a safeguard intended to give notice of disease which might otherwise escape attention, till too late to be remedied; and its indications should never be neglected. Headaches may be alassified under two names, viz: Symptomatic and Idiopathic. Symptomatic Headache is exceedingly common and is the precursor of a great variety of diseases, among which are Apoplexy, Gout, Rheumatism, and all febrile diseases. In its nervous form It is sympathetic of disease of the stomach constituting sick headache, of hepatic disease contituting billious headache, of worms, constitutions to the constitutions of the stomach constitutions and the stomach constitutions are storied to the stomach constitution and the storied to the of apparently sound health and prostrating at once the mental and physical energies, and in other instances it comes on slowly, heralided by depression of spirits or accribity of temper. In most instances the pain is in the front of the head, overone or began and sometimes provoking vomiting; under this class may also be asmed Neurilyia.

For the treatment of either class of Headacacth, Cephalic Pills have been found a sure and asferemedy, relieving the most acute pains in a few minutes, and by its subtle power eradicating the diseases o which Headache is the unerring index.

ead and gone with the Sick Hea Druggist.-You must mean Spalding's Cephallo Brills, Bridget.—Och! sure now and you've sed it, here's the quarther and give me the Pills and don't be all day about it aither.

Constipation or Cositiveness,

Hysteria, Rypochonsinais, Melancholy, and Inasan-ty, first indicate their presence in the system by this starming symptom. Not unfrequently the diseases named originate in Constipation, but take on an in-dependent existence unless the cause is crediented in an early stage. From all these considerations is follows that the disorder should receive immediate attention whenever is occurs, and no person should nearlect to get a box of Cephalic Pillson the first ap-pearance of the complaint, as their timely use will expel the incidious approaches of disease and de-stroy the dangerous fee to human life.

ART Over excirement, and the mental care and anxiety incident to close attention to business or study, are among the numerous causes of Nervous Headacks. The disordered state of the mind and body, incident to this distressing complaint is a fatal blow to all energy and ambition. Sufferers by this disorder can always obtain speedy relief from these distressing attacks by using one of the Cephalie Pills whenever the symptoms appear. It quiets the overtasked brain, and soothes the strained and larring nerves, and relaxes the tension of the stomach, which always accompanies and aggravates the disordered condition of the brain.

The document assumes the complete in-dependence of South Carolina, with this assumption with it, the first proposition under the second head: He argues that the position of the Administration is absurd.

If the forts be regarded as property only, and the purpose be to protect it, he con-siders the various ways of protecting pro-perty, and shows that a collision will not afford protection, whether the fort be taken or not. The property will be injured. This injury he says can be avoided and every dollar secured, as South Carolina pledges herself to pay its full value. The communication proceeds to consider the result of the refusal to settle the question as one of property, one of dollars and cents, as the Government based its whole action on the idea of protecting property. Col. Hayne contends that the question should be considered as one involving property alone. As such, it could be easily arranged. He says farther, that he is instructed to assure the President that any attempt to reinforce will be considered a declaration of war.

The Cabinet was in session to-day on the communication. The anticipation is that the President will only reply to Col. Hayne that he will send a communication to Congress, and that he will reply to the demand in a special message. This course deprives Col. Hayne of a rejoinder. He leaves on Monday. He thinks there will be no attack on Fort Sumter until after the organization of a Southern Republic, unless an attempt be made to reinforce it.

Gustavus Koemer has declined the appointment of Commissioner, and Judge Palmer appointed in his stead.

The Springfield correspondent of the Tribune says that Mr. Lincoln returned to Springfield yesterday. He had a reception on Thursday evening at the Court House in Charleston. On being pressed to make a speech, he declined in any way to indicate his future policy, but expressed great gratification at the hearty unanimity with which all parties had come forward to welcome him. On his return he met a committee of citizens from Cincinnati, who came to tender him the hospitalities of chatcity on his way to Washington. They returned yesterday, hearing a letter accepting the invitation in accor lance with the resolutions of the Legislature passed yesterday. Relative to BRANDRETH'S PILLS de attention from INVALIDS: attention from INVALIDS:

HAMMOSTON, N. J., May 7, 1860.

DE. BRANDREIE:—Pear Sir—I have long wanted to write to you and express my gratitude for the beneficial effects that have been experienced in a sown family and in hundreds, any. thousands of others, by the use of Brandreth's Pills. The first rear my friend Brockway sold your pills in Boston 1928. I was then in a declining state of health, and my friends as well as myself supposed that my by felends as well as myself supposed that my earthly voyage would soon terminate. Mr. Brock-way urged me to take the Brandreth's Pills, the hash of the supposed that having used so much medicine with no good effect, was more inclined to let nature take figeourse, and calculy submit to my fate. Mr. B. offered to give me one degen boxes it I would take them as prescribed. By this time fram he had great faith in them, and I finally consented to take them, but not as a sife. I went home, and went at it most hopelessir. After taking one box I began to feel better. Well, sir, when I had used up my twelve boxes I was a well, healthy man—my weight having goue from 181 pounds up to 182 pounds. I then endered a supply, and between that those and the FORT KEARNEY, Feb. 2.—The Pony Ex-ress, with San Francisco dates to the 17th It, passed at half-past three o'clock this Measures are in progress for holding a inion mass meeting in San Francisco du-ing the present week. REPUBLICANS for Compromise.

SHELBYVILLE, IND., Feb. 2.—The Republican County Convention met here this afternoon. The Border States proposition was adopted with great unanimity. The Republicans invited the Democrats, who had appointed a meeting at the same time and place, to unite with them, but the Democrats declined and withdrew to another place and adopted the Crittenden Compromise. 475 GET YOUR PICTURES AT THE Union Meeting in Baltimore. CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER. THE events of the year before us will be fraught with a greater interest to the people of the whole country than those of the exciting period through which we have just passed-as thrilling in their nature and as important in beir results as they have been. For the firs time in the history of our country, a political party, purely and strictly sectional, has succeded in electing the Chief Executive officer of the nation, and thus obtained control of one epartment of the Federal Government. Thi has alarmed the people of the other section, and recipitated movements looking to a dissoluion of the Union. The whole country-and the copie of all the States alike-are deeply and qually interested in what concerns the welfare of every American citizen, whether in the North or the South, and whether at home or abroad. We are evidently surrounded by perils of no ordinary magnitude-dangers that may urst upon us in all their terrible reality at any honr. No man worthy of liberty can rest in concerned ignorance of events now daily ocurring in all parts of the country; and a MAGNOLIA BALM: knowledge of these matters can best be obtained through such a newspaper as the WEEKLY LOUISVILLE COURIER. This Elegant Preparation renders the Skin soft and fresh, imparting to it a Marbie Purity. It is most and are freshing if applied to the face after expectation to the sun, and will give immediate relief to the Skin on these S. Nothing posogous enters into its consultance.

Nor are these the only things now transpir or about to transpire, in which our people must. take deep interest. On the First Monday in

THE RIVER has again commenced rising, and up to dark last evening it had risen a little over three inches at the head of the falls, making seven feet water in the canal by the mark. On the falls there were five feet water in the pass. The weather has been cloudy and gloomy, with slight attempts to snow or rain Saturday and yesterday, which according to the instincts of the ground hog, are indications that the severity of winter is over.

Saturday, the 2d inst., was Candlemas day, as well as the ground-hog advent; and it being cloudy and rainy, winter may be considered broken, if the following couplet is a sure token:

The Cumberland at Nashville, Saturday, was steadily falling, with 7½ feet water reported on Harpeth Shoals.

The James Johnson left Nashville for New Orleans, and the Commercial arrived on Thursday.

New Orleans, and the Commercial arrived on Thursday.

The famous John Gault, Capt. Bunce, arrived from Nashville yesterday rather light, as there is but little produce coming this way. She is at the city wharf ready for a return trip, and advertised for Nashville and all Cumberland river landings this evening.

The Time came in from Tennessee river The Time came in from Tennessee river yesterday with a good load of cotton and produce for this port, and 100 tons of pig iron for Cincinnati. To her officers we are indebted for a manifest. She returns to Tennessee river Saturday.

The Magenta, from New Orleans, as we learn by dispatch to Benedict & Son, the agents, passed Vicksburg Friday with 600 tons.

THE B. J. ADAMS.—By special dispatch from Kenry McDougal, the attentive and popular clerk of the B. J. Adams, we learn that she passed Vicksburg Saturday morning with a fine trip. The Adams is due tonight, and returns to New Orleans to-morrow evening.

COMMUNICATION OF THE PROPERTY OF

Mr. Clifford, the arell known produce dealer, is one of the arm, which will hereafter be known as Sage, Bowen & Co. They are located at the old stand on Wall street. The Atlantic for New Orleans.—The great Louisville packet, Atlantic, the fleetest of the fleet, and champion of the Southern trade, was due from New Orleans last night. She will be at the Portland wharf this morning, ready for freight, and starts to New Orleans this evening at 5 o'clock. Passengers will find her fare unsurpassed anywhere, and shippers of either freight or stock are assured that she is a stout and commodious boat, with the best arrangements for live stock afloat.

Thanks to Mr. Foster, the clever clerk of the Chancellor, from New Orleans, for a manifest. She has a heavy cargo of groceries.
The Chancellor, in charge of Captain Malbon, returns to New Orleans this evening. She is a safe, staunch boat, and starts from Portland, providing comfortably for resempers.

this evening, from Portland.

The E. H. Fairchild, with a heavy cargo, arrived from New Orleans yesterday. We learn from Dick Fuller that she was crippled in one of her wheels above Hickman, which has detained her. She is advertised to return to New Orleans tomorrow evening, and Capt. Fawcett will be sure to put ker through on time.

[From the Crescent of the 3ist.]

The general money market moved along quietly to-day. There was no press for discounts beyond the regular routine of commerce and trade. The general routine of trade is settling down on what we have before aliuded to-a cash level. To remove any doubte about what constitutes a cash level, we have to easy that a cash level is a dead level, and the dead level movement, as it were, is placing our commercial community in an independent position. That holders and owners of money can prate away as much as they desire, yet if there are no commercial or other securities affoat they would be hors du combat. As the course of things is now tending, it is palpable that the dealers and buyers of paper, who have for years, in some measure, dictated and controlled the New Orleans money and paper market, will be hors du combat. It is about time for capitalists, dealers in paper, owners of money, and those who have been living on cent per cent, that the borrowing and accepting system has received a check from which it will not recover this year, 1801; that there are very limited amounts of paper making from day to day. In fact, we may say that Othello's occupation is gone; that there are no twelve months cotton factors' acceptances on the market; that the squeamishness of dealers in and buyers of paper have driven the cotton factorage community into what may be termed a self-denying position, on which we might dilate.

Provisions at Cincipnati. The Leonora, a new stern-wheeler, can e in from Pittsburg Saturday with a lot of hay. She was receiving 100 tons of pig iron from the Time yesterday.

The Jacob Strader, the low pressure, is the mail and passenger packet for Cincinnati and the East at noon to-day.

The Diadem, that arrived from the black port of Pittsburg Saturday, had a large number of U.S. muskets for this city. No excitement.

Among the arrivals at the wharf Saturday, were a pair of boats laden with hay, and a pair of boats laden with plg iron for this port.

hay, and a pair of boats lader with pig from for this port.

One of the hay boats was no doubt the identical one that so scared the Abolition editors of the Madison papers—the Cour-ier and Banner. They mistook a barrel of potatoes, hidden in the hay, for a big gun. The little propeller Citizen came in from Memphis Saturday, laden to the guards with cotton—the great Southern King. It was nine tiers deep on her guards. Thanks to the officers of the E. H. Fairchild, from New Orleans, for a mani-

The Glendale arrived from Memphis last evening with 1,180 bales of cotton for the East.

The Trio with 800 bales, the J. T. Mc-Combs with 1,000 bales, and the Neptune with 1,000 bales, are all due from Memphis. The Dacotah, with over one thousand bales, arrived from Memphis yesterday. The Memphis papers of Thursday report a good rise in White river, with the arrival of the Gen. Pike with 850 bales of cotton. The New Moon had another good isad of cotton from the Hatchie.

The Arkansas continues low and unnavigable, with over 15,000 bales of cotton along its banks awaiting shipment. Thanks to Kinne Smith, clerk of the John Gault, for a manifest. She had a large lot of hides and dry fruit.
The Keystone (towboat) came down resterday with 6,000 barrels of Ohio River Co.'s salt for Nashville.

The Sunny Side came in from Madison yesterday, and descended the falls to New Albany for her freight that was stored there. By her mishaps on the falls some 50 or 60 of her timbers were broken. She was harded out on the ways at Madison and repaired.

The Bracelet, due to-day, has her bills up for Memphis and way places, and starts this evening.

The J. W. Hailman and Kenton left Pittsburg Thursday for the South.
The Wabash is reported falling, with 3½ feet water in the channel, and the D. B. Campbell laid up at Terre Haute. The Mississippi at St. Louis Saturday was slowly swelling, with 41/2 feet water to Cairc, and but little ice running.

The Switzerland, from New Orleans, passed Memphis Thursday morning.
The shipments of Cotton from Memphis, last Tuesday, amounted to 3,900 bales, including 2,400 bales to the Ohio river. The residue went South. The Arahanche has the following rather singular act of the Memphians:

Capt. Hicks King, of the steamer Golden State, was arraigned before the Recorder, yesterday, for entertaining passengers while his boat was in port, and fined §39. The Captain and his crew are such "entertaining" fellows that it is a pity to fine them for it.

a pity to fine them for it.

The levee at New Orleans, last Tuesday and Wednesday, was as much crowded as ever, chiefly with cotton. The following is from our exchanges of the last date:
The Paul Jones had an excellent trip from Camden. She reports the Jim Barkman laid up on account of the low condition of the upper part of Ouchita liver. The Startight had over 1500 bales of cotton, and the D. R. Carroll 900, as well as some hides, stock, etc. The Newsboy was brought down by Capt. Smoker, and will most probably lay up for the present.

Whisky—Steady; sales of 850 bbls at 18 cents.

OFFICE LOUISVILLE COURIER, AND SATURDAY EVEN'G, Feb. 2, 1861. In financial circles there is a further improvement to note, and in all cases where satisfactoly paper was offered but little if any trouble was experienced in negotiating loans. The demand is rapidly decreasing, while, on the other hand, the supply of capital is increasing. Collections are being now freely made, so that paper maturing is promptly met, and confidence among business men is fast becoming restored, and, upon the whole, everything looks bright. Among business men we note a more cheerful appearance, and they seem more willing to make contracts than for some time past. There is no change to note in currency or exchange.

To-day the general market was rather dull, owing to the fact that the railroads south of Nashville have become blockaded by the heavy amounts of freight that have been shipped in that direction by the merchants of our city in filling their Southern orders. The demand for produce and provisions has come almost entirely from the South, and now, that it is impossible to ship in certain directions, the demand from the places on these roads has ceased, as parties are not disposed to order now, when the goods cannot be received for some time. In flour there is a declining tendency in prices, owing to the unfavorable news received from New York, but no permanent decline was established. The sales were about 600 bbls at $4 50@$5 50 for superfine to extra. The demand for present is almost entirely for superfine. The market for wheat is active, and that which finds its way to our market meets with ready sale at $50@$1 10 for prime red to extra choice white. The demand for corn was rather small to-day and the sales were limited to 3,000 bushels at 51@55c for mixed to prime white shelled, delivered at the depot. Oats are quiet and unchanged. Whisky remains steady at 14@14/2c. Groceries are firm and quiet.

The provision market was rather weak, with no disposition on the part of buyers to operate at the current quotations, while, on th Whisky—Steady; sales of 830 bbls at 18 cents.

Provisions at Cincienati.

The Gazette, of this morning, says:

Provisions, which received a damper yesterday from the South, had a more dragging trade than other articles of produce, the advices today being calculated to further depress rather than strengthen matters in the way of sales we have but little to report. Holders keep their stocks back, preferring not to press sales, or even appear anxious to realize under present circumstances; but at the same time the offerings are in excess of the demand. Mess pork was to be had at $17 for city and $16 75 for country. For bulk meat the asking prices were 6½ 68½ for shoulders and sides, with small sales of country at 6½ 68½ f. Lots were offered in the interior, freights being the same as from Cincinnati, as 6½ 68½ f. packed. Bacon dull at 7½, 9½ 610½ f for shoulders, rib, and clear sides. Bulk hams 85, packed. Sugar-cured do 1½, packed. Rump pork $11 50@ $12 50; sales of prime at $12 50. Lard quiet, but steady, with sales of 200 tes at 9½ f. Head lard 8½ 69¢; gut $½ ¢. House.—John Cochrane, Morris of Pennsylvania, and Noel of Missouri, presented memorials expressive of the strong desire for the adjustment of the difficulties. Those presented by the last named gentleman included the signatures of thirty-five ladies who do not thus approach Congress in a spirit of dictation, but as the descendants of the honored women of the Revolution. It is understood that Senators Benjamin and Slidell were sent for to know if they were aware of this transaction. The Government telegraphed the Collector and Treasurer to know the facts connected with the seizure.

Attempt to Defraud. Boston, Jan. 3.—G. H. Sprague and G. G. Mann, of the firm of Sprague, Mann & Co., dry goods dealers, were before the Police Court to-day, and held in $15,000 bail each on a charge of attempting to defrand their creditors in New York and Boston, of whom they had purchased goods. It is alleged that their recent purchases amount to $30,000, and they now account for but $25,000. Mr. SHERMAN called up the billauthe Mr. SHERMAN called up the billauthorizing the President, at any time before the 1st of July, to borrow on the credit of the United States not exceeding $25,000,000, certificates to be issued for not less than $1,000 coupons, payable semi-annually with interest, and the faith of the United States pledged for the payment of the interest and principal.

principal.

Mr. PHELPS offered a substitute that the third section of the act of June, 1860, providing for the redemption of the Treasury notes, be modified so as to empower the Secretary of the Treasury to negotiate the balance of the loan not taken under that act, on the most favorable terms, instead of restricting the negotiation of the loan at not less than par, and after notice of ten instead of thirty days. Mr. Phelps said the Morrill tariff bill proposed a loan of $21,000,000, and the bill reported from the Committee on Ways and Means $25,000,000, thus making $46,000,000, when there is an exhausted loan of $14,000,000 under the act of June, of which he desired the Government to avail itself without unnecessary delay.

Mr. SHERMAN approved the amendment. The loan proposed was $25,000,000. He supposed it would settle up the accounts of this Administration. As there was no money and little revenue, they would be obliged to resort to the credit of the Government.

Mr. HINDMAN offered the proviso that no part of the loan should be used to mainfall forces to make war on States which Massachusetts Legislature. BOSTON, Feb. 2.—The House went into secret session to-day to consider the bill appropriating $100,000 to the emergency funds.
